

Committee: Crisis 2

Topic: Regional Terrorist Group

Report of the Chairs

I. Theme of the Conference

Model United Nations San Antonio (MUNSA) is a conference dedicated to fostering authentic and passionate debate amongst delegates in order to generate solutions to current global issues. The theme of MUNSA XXIV: Envision encapsulates our mission to urge delegates to foresee a future in which these problems have been dissolved. With collaboration in mind, delegates from every committee are encouraged to visualize innovative resolutions and a prosperous world to come. Together, we will propel ourselves into an age in which brilliant ideas converge to transform our world and address its most paramount issues.

II. Rationale

An extremist terrorist organization has emerged across the Middle East in Iran, Afghanistan, and Pakistan³. The terrorist organization is led charismatically by an unidentified man who preaches anti-Indian and anti-Western ideals. Countries, groups, and individuals who oppose or speak out against him are met with belligerence and draconian terror. This man and the organization he has constructed has amassed a great deal of political and economic power over elections in the region, and the brutal oppression of his targets has just recently come to light.

This emergence requires prudent minds in order to exercise the ability to foresee and navigate a delicate political crisis. The crisis is being brought before this conference out of the need for a conglomerate that is conscious of and able to anticipate human ambition and the seemingly irrational behavior of those in power during a critical diplomatic situation.

III. Crisis Description

Footage and images emerged from reliable sources in the Middle East showing the existence of a terrorist organization that violently oppresses both those that advocate Western ideals as well as Hindu-Indian sympathizers. After closer scrutiny, it has become clear the regional power this group holds over countries in the area. The terrorist group, which plans to spread its beliefs outside of the Middle East, has implemented illegal biological and chemical weapons that pose an immediate danger to the innocent civilians of these countries as well as the areas that the group plans to expand to. They are using these weapons to enforce their political paragon against deviants and using more clandestine and insidious means in bureaucratic channels.

To ensure the security of civilians in these nations, delegates should make carefully measured diplomatic strides to combat the violence caused by this organization⁴, and come to a conclusion on how to solidify the condition of the governments in which they hold an ever-increasing influence over.
